

Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst

The Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst designation is awarded by the CAIA Association. The CAIA Charter is granted upon completion of two levels of qualifying exams, combined with relevant professional experience. However, CFA charterholders may be eligible for a CAIA Level I exam waiver. There are no requirements to maintain this designation however, the CAIA Association provides events and webinars to allow members to stay up to date.